Overview of the Plot and Structure

Synopsis of the Narrative Arc

At its core, Everytime It Rains narrates the story of a young woman, Aisha, whose life is dramatically altered by a series of personal tragedies. The story unfolds through a non-linear timeline, interweaving past and present to depict her journey from heartbreak and despair to eventual healing and acceptance. The novel opens with Aisha’s return to her childhood hometown during the monsoon season, a symbolic motif that underscores themes of renewal and introspection. As she navigates her emotional landscape, the narrative delves into her relationships—particularly with her estranged father, her best friend, and a mysterious stranger she encounters during her rain-soaked days. Singh employs a layered storytelling technique, gradually revealing the events that led to Aisha's current state. Flashbacks are seamlessly integrated, providing readers with insights into her formative experiences, her love story, and the traumatic loss that shadows her existence. This structure enhances the emotional impact and invites readers to piece together the puzzle of her life.

Character Development and Relationships

The characters in Singh’s novel are richly developed, each embodying different facets of human resilience and vulnerability. Aisha’s character arc is central, illustrating her evolution from a fragile, grieving individual to someone who finds strength within herself. Supporting characters—such as

Thematic Analysis

Love and Loss

One of the dominant themes in Everytime It Rains is the profound interplay between love and loss. Singh portrays love not merely as a romantic endeavor but as a force that shapes identity and offers solace during times of grief. The novel examines how love can be both a source of happiness and pain, reflecting the duality inherent in human relationships.
