The Birth of the Play

Black Coffee was first penned in 1930, shortly after Christie's initial surge of popularity with her detective novels. Additionally, Christie's background in pharmacy and her understanding of scientific processes likely contributed to the authenticity of the play’s scientific themes. Her meticulous attention to detail is evident in the depiction of laboratory procedures and the scientific environment depicted on stage.

The Play’s Writing Process

Christie collaborated with her husband, Max Mallowan, a noted archaeologist, during the writing process. This partnership lent the play a sense of authenticity and precision.
