This approach aims to create a "dissatisfaction with the status quo" that compels change.

The Interconnectedness of Justice

King underscores that injustice in one area affects all aspects of society: > "Injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere." This interconnectedness reinforces the necessity of collective action across racial and geographical boundaries.

The Critique of Moderates and White Allies

King criticizes those who prefer order over justice, particularly white moderates who prioritize "peace" over justice. He laments: > "I have almost reached the regrettable conclusion that the white moderate... is more devoted to 'order' than to justice." This critique highlights the moral failure of complacency and underscores the urgency for active advocacy.
