What Are the Laws of Human Nature?

The laws of human nature are universal principles that underpin human behavior across different cultures and eras. They are not merely abstract theories but observable patterns that manifest consistently in individuals and groups. These laws help decode the motivations behind actions, revealing the subconscious drives and societal influences that shape human conduct.

The Purpose of the Archive

Key Laws and Their Significance

The archive encompasses several core laws, each shedding light on different facets of human nature:

1. The Law of Self-Interest: Humans are primarily motivated by self-interest, often masked by social niceties.
2. The Law of Social Proof: People tend to follow the crowd, especially in uncertain situations.
3. The Law of Confirmation Bias: Individuals favor information that confirms their existing beliefs.

The Law of Confirmation Bias

People prefer information that supports their pre-existing beliefs, leading to echo chambers and polarization. Being aware of confirmation bias helps in critically evaluating information and avoiding misconceptions.
